

CYNDY SZEKERES'
I Am a Kitten

THIS GOLDEN STURDY BOOK BELONGS TO

CYNDY SZEKERES'
I Am a Kitten

Written by Ole Risom

A GOLDEN BOOK • NEW YORK

Western Publishing Company, Inc., Racine, Wisconsin 53404

© 1970 Western Publishing Company, Inc. Illustrations © 1993 Cyndy Szekeres.
All rights reserved. Printed in the U.S.A. No part of this book may be reproduced or copied in any form without written permission from the publisher. All trademarks are the property of Western Publishing Company, Inc. Library of Congress
Catalog Card Number: 92-73504 ISBN 0-307-12169-0 MCMXCIII

I am a kitten.

My name is Muffin.

I live in a cozy house in the country.

Every morning when I wake up,
I have a nice long stretch.

Then I eat my breakfast . . .

and wash myself.

I say, "Meow."

That means "Hello, I like you."

I like to play with all kinds of things.

I like to play hide-and-seek with my brother and sisters.

When I first met Puppy,
we were afraid of each other.

Now we are friends,
and we often play together.

Sometimes I climb the big tree
in our backyard.

Sometimes I take a walk with my mother.

At night I wash myself . . .

and then I go to sleep.

A
ST

Goodwill

Books

$1.

ISBN: 0-307-12169-2 #191